It's gotta be you, and nobody else
Don't tell me that I'm, just fooling myself
You must be my love, you must be the one
Don't say it's a game, you're playing for fun

I've given my lips and my heart to you so willingly
You promised your love would be mine eternally

No don't say it's a lie, don't say it's not true
Cause without your love, oh what would I do

So don't break my heart, don't break it in two
It's gotta be you, It's gotta be you
No, don't break my heart, don't break it in two
It's gotta be you, it's gotta be you!
