I tried so hard, to be carefree
Rolling out of someone's bed into the sunshine
But the sun comin' up doesn't always bring the light
And somehow I feel
It's just not right, not for me
Oh, it's been so long since I've been loved by name

Love me by name
Love me by name
Come on, come on
Come on, come on

I feel afraid, I don't know why You're surely not the first I've had who held me gently
Who took the sweet time to ask me about me
Well maybe this time
Oh, God
Let it be
Oh, it's been so long since I've been loved by name
Love me by name
Love me by name
Come on, come on
Come on, come on
