Sometimes
I think of when we met
Sometimes
I wish we hadn't yet
I think I'd like to start it all again
The tears, the games
The finding out we both did then

Sometimes, sometimes
More 'n more 'n more 'n more
We come so close, so close in
I don't know where I end, and you begin

Sometimes
I watch you while you sleep
The tears come
From lovin' you so deep
But if you left me, I know what I would do
I'd hold the world
'Cause somewhere in it there'll be you

Sometimes, sometimes
More 'n more 'n more 'n more
We come so close, so close in
I don't know where I end, and you begin
