I know im whining cause all i do is look through all the feelings that i had for you And if i only knew that every minute with you will make the chance to be apart and when I fell your heart beat next to me i know it can't be wrong with you But my friends tell me i love you babby what am i supposed to do
Be me babby when I tell you it's true
There was a time when i though that nothing can come between us
Now i know that i need you for all time
supposed to do be me babby when i tell you it's true
