I'm so good at flying away

Maybe I'm lucky
Playing my cards at 21
Breaking my heart
Oh well. I fell. what do you know ?
Covered in laughter
Touch me again. and then again
Only for a while

Till you get so high
and you've had enough
And you make me swear
I won't give up
Sunshine's ready to rain
Like an ocean view when it isn't fair
Like a Super 8 out of nowhere
Sunshine's ready to rain

Oh man. what then?
Where do you go
When you stop wanting
Everything to fit perfectly
Just as you planned?
Stand back. feel that bump in the road
Were you expecting
Time to remember you're asleep?
Only for a while

Till you get so high
and you've had enough
And you make me swear
I won't give up
Sunshine's ready to rain
