Album : Goodbye blue and white (2002) Woo! Blasting our way through the boundaries of Hell no one can stop us tonight we take on the world with the hatred inside mayhem the reason we fight then we return from the dead we conquer then move on ahead Surviving the slaughters and killing we've lost attacking once more now with twice as much strength Chorus: (Evil) My words defy (Evil) has no disguise (Evil) will take your soul Satan our master in evil mayhem (Evil) my wrath unfolds he guides us with every first step our axes are growing with power and fury soon there'll be nothingness left Midnight has come and the leather's strapped on consuming all that we can evil is at our command we clash with God's angel and conquer new souls (Chorus)
