And I
I wonder if you'd understand
If I said I'll never go
Never go along again,
And if I told you all that I believe in
And gave you all my reasons
And always had an answer
An honest answer for all of Them,

Sometimes,
You just want to belong
At any loss or any cost
Sometimes,
You just want to belong

Yeah I,
I've made mistakes before
But I just can't seem to remember them anymore,
And I've followed everyone's lead before
And I've made my own decisions,
And I've never felt so strong before
I've never felt so strong before,

Sometimes,
You just want to belong
At any loss or any cost
Sometimes,
You just want to belong
Yeah sometimes your best defence
Is a good reminder of your common sense
Oh yeah
Sometimes,
You just want to belong,

So strike a match
And hope it lasts
Here's following your own lead,
Strike a match
And hope it lasts
Here's following your own lead,
It's the path that I have taken (So strike a Match And hope it lasts

After all the contemplation Hers to following your own lead)
It's the promise I have made (So Strike a match)
I hope it lasts
I hope it lasts

Sometimes,
You just want to belong
Yeah sometimes your best defence
Is a good reminder of your common sense
Oh yeah
Sometimes,
You just want to belong,
