Intro: This is a Fairy quest And I promise I will not judge any person only as a teenager. If you will constantly remind yourself that some of my generation judges people by their race, their belief, or the color of their skin, and that this is no more right then saying all teenagers are drugin dope addicts or glue sniffers!

Do you think it's strange that there's a way of how you look, how you act like, and how you think pretend they're the same as you
that theres a way of how you look, and how you act and how you think, pretend their the same as you Do you know about his strength in convictions or how she puts all her faith in religion Did we take the time to really discover how little we know about each other? keep us from saying anything and separate from everything.
And all this really means is you're one in a crowd and paranoid of every sound another friend you won't miss anyhow
