i might as well just sleep it off wishful thinking's got my wires crossed (whoa ho) when i am desperate and alone i know i know i know how low i go so i'll drive and disappear and maybe if i'm luck by this time next year no one i know will know my name it's either change or go or i'll explode today i'll leave a note on my machine unplug the phone and finish packing all my things i found a photograph of me its been such a slow decay day to day i don't even recognize my own face i had another breakdown and i'm floating face down

i'm going to sleep it off this sinking feeling of always feeling lost hasn't been that long six years worth of always being wrong i met an old friend out on the street trade stories and out of date memories and she has a photograph of me it's been such a slow decay day to day did we seem much happier in those days its been a slow decay day to day i don't even recognize my face i know i know i know how low i go [x4]
