Girl you breathe
Tonight I'm going crazy
Just wishing that I could be there by your side
To make sure you get home safe
Tonight idk what I'll do with myself
These four walls never seemed like such
A hell Away from home.
And all I need to know

Does she think of me when she takes his hand?
Will she miss me when they start to dance
To the same song I sang to her
That one night oh so long ago
Will it feel right that time tonight?
When she gets all dressed up oh so nice
For the boy who will look in her eyes
And won't even know the whole worlds in his arms

Here I lay in my bed
Just wishing to fall asleep
But I've counted and run out of all my sheep
And sleeping tight in the sweetest dreams
Don't seem one step closer when the clock strikes three [[Might not be right I couldn't understand this part that well]]
Where just standing in my head
But tonight they'll be better left unsaid
Because this boy you're just dying to love
Has come up short. No he's never enough
And I don't even know

If she'll think of me when she takes his hand
Will she miss me when they start to dance?
To the same song I sang to her
That one night oh so long ago
Will it feel right that time tonight?
When she gets all dressed up oh so nice
For that boy will look in her eyes
And won't even know the whole worlds in his arms

I can honestly say that I wish I never cared
All the anguish and pain

And this feeling of despair
Would all be a mystery to me?
And it'd be so easy
To let you go.

But all the same
It was worth every tear
And every word
But I'll sing at the top of my lungs

It was all worth the love

Will she think of me when she takes his hand?
Will she miss me when they start to dance?
To the same song I sang to her
That one night oh so long ago
Will it feel right that time tonight?
When she gets all dressed up oh so nice
For that boy who will look in her eyes
And won't even know
The whole worlds in his arms
The whole worlds in his arms
My whole worlds in his arms.
