Chorus

Why you gotta go and put a lid on me
And why you tryin to turn me into something I'm not All of the styles you try to fit on me to change the very thing you got
I don't get it when you tell me you love me cause you know I'm smart and strong
When we're alone we feel so right
But lately I been thinking this is all wrong

Verse 1

You tell me I'm beautiful inside and out
And that you want me just the way I am
But when we're out you tell me to just be cool
Don't talk too much don't laugh too loud
Honey what's that all about

Chorus

Verse 2

You're gonna have to make your mind up how you want this to play
Do I look like I care what your friends think I don't care what they say C'mon I thought that we were great together didn't think you wanted me to change
Honey what's that all about
Damn

Chorus

Bridge

If you love me show it
I wanna really know it
Not just in the bedroom or that will surely blow it
Things that make you love or touch you deep inside
Are meant to make you happy
And I don't wanna hide anything about me

Mmm Oh oh oh oh oh why

Chorus x 2 (Ad lib)
