Shes all alone again...
Shes all on her own again...

You dont know, theres something in her eyes and it shows
Theres something that she hides, oh i know
Ive seen that face before, shes alone
Shes run away from home

She walks alone
She gets it on
She'll take you home
Hey
She walks alone (in cardboard city)
She gets it on (looks so pretty)
She'll take you home (take you home)

You dont know, she sits upon the street
And she says her dignitys ignored as she begs
In the darkness shes alone in her hell
Since running away from home

She walks alone (in cardboard city)
She gets it on (looks so pretty)
She'll take you home (take you home)
Hey
She walks alone (in cardboard city)
She gets it on (looks so pretty)
She'll take you home (take you home)

The streets at night are where its at Depravity a well known fact
All alone in cardboard city
She needs a home, and wants no pity

She walks alone (in cardboard city)
She gets it on (looks so pretty)
She'll take you home (take you home)
(Repeat to end)
