Don't get so excited
You're likely to hurt yourself.
You're head looks disproportionate
From pushing too hard to believe

You're not wrong,
Just better off thinking it was only love.

It hurts like a splinter stuck in your foot
And you've tried, but can't get it out.
And of course, you walk in the heat for miles.
You forget the pain, but it comes back after a while.
You're not wrong,
Just better off thinking it was only love.
You're not wrong,
Just better off thinking it was only love, it was only love.

instrumental break-

You're not wrong,
Just better off thinking it was only love.
You're not wrong,
Just better off thinking it was only love, it was only love,
it was only love, it was only love
