ohh ohh ohhh yeaah

(ain't got)

No calling after ten. No hustling my friends. No asking crystal where she been. (ain't got) No showing upon announce. No you ain't been around. No calling no stalking no conversations and that's how it should be. Cuz if it's over, then it's over you should let me go. So why you still in my dreams you should leave me alone. Got of hold in my mind, you should let it go. Wait a minute baby im the only one who wanna know

I wanna call you (hi) wish you would fall through knock on the door say you love me you miss me (iiii) and to admit that(iii) wish we could get back. Thought i'll be cool but the truth is...im...im hung upon you.

Cuz everytime the telephone rings i pick it up hoping it's your call. (your calling) Every time i turn on the radio that damn radion is playing are song. Why can't i get over you x3 i don't know what to do. If your gone then why wont you just let me go. Let me go.

I dont understand this wasn't in my plans. Should've been a clean cut break-up. No regrets no second thoughts! I said i wanted out you said you wanted out. Said she wanna do her own thing so what im tripping bout. Looking in the mirror im sure that i've had enough im sick of friends saying go have your fun don't be inlove. When you got a broken heart having fun is tough (tough) and if that wasnt enough still wanna call you.

I wanna call you (hi) Wish you could fall through knock on the door say youlove me you miss me(iii) and to admit that (iiii) Wish we could get back, thought i'll be cool but the truth is..im...im hung upon you then why wont you just let me go. Let me go.

I never thought it would've happened not in my wildest dreams would've i ever haved imagined i'll be such a mess im stressed yess im having...having trouble
letting you go (having trouble letting you go)
I never thought it would've happened not in my wildest

that would be me)

I never thought it would've happened (i never thought,
that would be me)

I never though
