to tell you the truth i was trying to get next to you girl i had a plan ill give him any luck with you cuz he dont understand 4 years in this case now that he broke you heart im saying i should of been your man im the reaon why he staped in your life if theres anything i apologized im the one to blame plus the fact that hes my friend i cant say a thang but you gotta understand you deserve someone like me if you just let me in

together baby we can win
i promise your heart
that i can give u more
if u just let me in

its like dejavu but this time i cant loose loose another chance to be with you (yeah) fokissed without you coming up wit lame excuses seing from a point of a view that yeahhh im the reason why late at nite you cry if theres anything i'd give u my life i cant turn back time yes i can rewind im the one to blame But you gotta understand

oh in time ill make it up to you even if it takes forever uhhh my darling girl let me be your everything
