The shadow descended in our world
And a dream wrapped up consciousness of people.
The grey eternity realized a lot of dreams
Making ideas come to reality.

The gates to infinity had opened.
The time fell asleep for long days.
The grey waters flowed with tears
Pouring it's dreams in our world.

The earth fell asleep with lethargic dream.
So came the ruling of dream and rain.
The gates took away all evil and kindness.
The life and the death has gone forever.

Humanity sleeps in the cold calm.
Forgotten religions and wars and sufferings.
Only dreams carry out wishes to reality
Penetrating in the deep of infinite knowledge.

The gates to infinity had opened
Filling the Universe with a dream.
Power of Universe has been washed away forever.
Setting it free from everlasting fetters.
