It's Monday morning, checked my cell phone
But nobody's calling me, no
I tried to ignore it but it's sinking in that I'm I'm all alone with me

Whoa, so I stare at your picture for the last time
To ease my mind this time I even break down and cry
I had good reason for leaving you, I was never enough
for you
You had me down in myself, putting me down

'Cause I'mma keep smiling, I'mma keep it moving
'Cause I don't need you, don't need you
Don't need you, don't need you

I'mma keep smiling, I'mma keep it moving
'Cause I don't need you, don't need you
Don't need you, don't need you no more
No more, no more, no more, no more, no more, no more

And baby, I stayed with you so long
That I lost myself
Now who would've thought that someone so independent
Would become so damn submissive

And sometimes in the back of my mind
I'd be missing you, missing you
But I can get through this 'Cause I can do better, so much better

So I stare at your picture for the last time
To ease my mind, this time I won't even break down and cry
I had good reason for leaving you I was never enough
for you
You had me down in myself, putting me down

'Cause I'mma keep smiling, I'mma keep it moving
'Cause I don't need you, don't need you
Don't need you, don't need you

I'mma keep smiling, I'mma keep it moving
'Cause I don't need you, don't need you
Don't need you, don't need you no more

'Cause I've been down and out too long
It's time to pick my head up, baby
Learn how to be a better, baby

This heartbreak ends today
I'd be moving on
And I won't give up on love

'Cause I'mma keep smiling, I'mma keep it moving
'Cause I don't need you, don't need you
Don't need you, don't need you

I'mma keep smiling, I'mma keep it moving
'Cause I don't need you, don't need you
Don't need you, don't need you

'Cause I'mma keep smiling, I'mma keep it moving
'Cause I don't need you, don't need you
Don't need you, don't need you

I'mma keep smiling, I'mma keep it moving
'Cause I don't need you, don't need you
Don't need you, don't need you no more
No more, no more, no more, no more, no
