We're taking off, so be aware.
We're watching out for them to clear.
And common sense is a common doubt it breaks the silence of defense.
So bear it now, it wont last long, just to save you from his charm.
But I can't complain, I just walked away,
And took more shots toward being safe.

Baby, you just bought yourself a brand new man, a
brand new man.
Baby, you just bought yourself a brand new man, a
brand new man.

It's changing up, the clothes you wear.
And watching out for them to stare.
The common man, this promise that breaks the silence
of your plan.
So carry now, It wont last long.
Just to please you from the start.
I can't complain, I just walked away,
And took more shots toward being safe.

Baby, you just bought yourself a brand new man, a
brand new man.
Baby, you just bought yourself a brand new man, a
brand new man.

She was always standing there,
She was always standing there,
She was always standing there ohhh.
(I can't believe this would happen to me)
She was always standing there,
She was always standing there,
She was always standing there ohhh.
(I never told you to settle for sex or...)
She was always standing there,
She was always standing there,
She was always standing there ohhh.

Baby, you just bought yourself a brand new man, a
brand new man.

Baby, you just bought yourself a brand new man, a
brand new man.
