Love's like fine wine don't rush it take your time I know without a doubt if you ever doubt, you'll doubt it all the time pretty eyes have run dry from the lesson that I've implied and if you practice what I preach, It would be keeping you alive and well just keep your heart safe now Well your pretty letdown pretty letdown put the drama down keep your heart out of this town Well your pretty letdown pretty letdown put the drama down keep your heart out of this town I wish I had the guts to say all that I wrote down in this song to your face because you're so much more than apologies anyways I'm sorry if I've ever changed, or acted like I never meant anything but you're so much more to me your alive and well just keep your heart safe now. well your pretty letdown pretty letdown put the drama down keep your heart out of this town well your pretty letdown pretty letdown put the drama down Keep your heart out of this townwell your pretty letdown pretty letdown put the drama down keep your heart out of this townwell your pretty letdown pretty letdown put the drama down keep your heart out of this town You're made of, what your scared of. just keep your hands tight, and keep your head up keep your head up, keep your head up and keep a smile on your cheeks if you look so hard, you'll never find it just take it slow, we'll take our time and I know without a doubt, if you ever doubt you'll doubt it all the time.
