"Goodbye Love"

Cleaning out the attic from all of your dramatics,
We're not gonna be running on empty like starving junkies begging for each Other
You promised not to tell and everything would end well
This is my goodbye love
It wasn't worth it all along
This is my goodbye
It wouldn't work out even if we tried
Sweeping out the bedroom with a broke and beaten broom,
We don't have to be gluing on halos like plastic heroes saving one another
You promised not to tell and everything would end well
This is my goodbye love
It wasn't worth it all along
This is my goodbye
It wouldn't work out even if we tried
Tonight we tried
