This is the last day I'll be unknown our crystal sky turns into grey
I swear to make a name that carves through stone as the curtains fade into Sheets of red Stepin back and forth and back and forth as I look around
So many faces there staring back at me Pacing back and forth back and forth as I make this sound
This is the place where I belong this is the place that finds me
Is this what you wanted when you asked for more?
This is the way, this is the way, this is the way we want it
This is the way, this is the way, this is the way it goes Jumpin up and down and up and down as it's escalating
So much emotion attached to everything
This is the place where I belong with simple thoughts and tragedy
This is the place where I belong this is the place that grounds me
Is this what you wanted when you asked for more?
This is the last day I'll be unknown our crystal sky turns
into grey
I swear to make a name that carves through stone as
the curtains fade into
Sheets of red
This is the way, this is the way, this is the way we want it
This is the way, this is the way, this is the way it goes
So this is the last place that I come before I getaway, I getaway, I
Getaway from here
(Carve your name)
So this is the last flame that I burn before I getaway, I getaway, I
Getaway from here
(Carve your name)
