"Waiting"

Isn't weird that I'm still falling even after you're gone Isn't strange that no one answers even after so long Waiting for you every year and I'm not gonna be the one to quit
Waiting for you to appear and I'm not gone be the one too
Isn't tragic I'm still crying even after you're gone Isn't strange that no one hears me even after so long Waiting for you every year and I'm not gonna be the one to quit
Waiting for you to appear and I'm not gone be the one
Even after, even after you had my heart in your palm for so long Waiting for you every year and I'm not gonna be the one to quit
Waiting for you to appear and I'm not gone be the one
I'm not running away, I'm not turning away my words are spoken (It's time we figured this out, it's time we figured this out)
As we lay (it's all the same)
