the anchor is a kickstand so i'm taking you down with me to the wrong side of the quicksand and our flashlight destiny you can be the walker i'm gonna be your wire you can be the ugly truth i'm gonna be your liar still the future lit up so bright for all to see i can't look now you're all the same you're all the same to me up and away up and away the anchor is a kickstand so i'm taking you down with me to the wrong side of the quicksand and our flashlight destiny it's all wrong we tripped along so much worse off for it and only god can help the one who put the magnets in you head up and away up and away with you if i could just get up i'd be fine if i could just get up
