If ever there was,
A heaven on earth
It's here in your arms
You've ended my search
If ever there was
A feeling so right
It must be the way I feel tonight

And after all the bridge is crossed
Just where the thought of hope was lost
That's where I found you and it all was worth a cost

If ever there was
A fire so strong
It's here in our hearts
Right where it belongs
It's just like that night
The first time we touched
Who there was this bond
If ever there was

Now I'm not worry anymore
What the future hope and so
Baby all my life
You're all I've waited for

Even hope that you will see
I'm the best I'll ever be
All my priest came true because of you
You mean the world to me

Oohâ€¦.

If ever there was
A good time to cry
It's these days too joy
But fall from my eyes
Just being with you
It's just like a dream
If only you knew how much it means

Now I'm not worried anymore
What the future hope and so
Baby all my life
You're all I've waited for

If ever there was
A love of all time
If ever there was
It's yours and mine
