"With A Little Love"

Would you like to see a world where no one ever hurts
Live among a people where compassion is the word Never see the tears of a thousand children falling on the dirt
Never hear the cry of a nation's people who's voice will not be heard

Calling out an engineer to save the planet earth
Calling all the dreamers who can help me build a world

Don't want it (x6)

Listen to the voices of a god before your time
It has all the answers to the questions you might find
With a little love the hardest heart can be opened to the light
With a little love the darkest heart can be opened to the

With a little love . . .

Calling out an engineer to save the planet earth
Calling all the dreamers who can help me build a world

Don't want it (x6)

With a little love . . . (x4)
