Happiness is just a state of mind x3

Some say dont listen to the sirens singing
Gotta keep an eye open and watch everything
Better stay well hidden
Better save your skin
Better say your prayers
When the heart ache begins

But you dont heed those words of wisdom
Heard them all before
Then alarm bells start to ring
They're gonna ring

If you play with fire your gonna get burned x3
And it feeds the lessons that we learn.

Feel the heartbeat running
Try to keep your nerve
Gotta steal yoursef from a fate you'll deserve
But she said don't listen
To what your momma say
Forget about tomorrow and live for today

But you dont hear those words of wisdom

Heard them all before
When you hear those sirens sing
You hear them sing

If you play with fire your gonna get burned x3
These are the lessons that we learn.

Happiness is just a state of mind x4

Fire x4

When we feel the thrill of danger
Throw caution to the wind
We will walk into the flame

In to the flame

If you play with fire your gonna get burned x3
These are the lessons that we learn.

If you play with fire your gonna get burned x3
These are the lessons that we learn.
