Pushing all the buttons
Trying to come to something
Flying with his feet on the ground

Full of dreams and visions
In a world of indecision
He ain't about to be pushed around

Been a long time coming on
Take a look at him now
And the days of if are gone
'Cause he's showing us how

Knowledge fuels the mind of the few
In a way that no one's found
Brave new answers screaming the truth
And the Techno wins the crown

Micro Kid with mega thoughts
He is real, he is here, he is fashionable
Micro Kid speaks digitalk
If you hear what he says it's acceptable

Generating square waves
While computing new games
Finally gets the chip off his back

A smile is on his face
Erasing every trace
Of doubt that plagues
The rest of the pack

And his brain stores memories
No alternatives could come in
He's the living remedy
Times are better than they were then

Knowledge fuels the mind of the few
In a way that no one's found
Brave new answers screaming the truth
And the Techno wins the crown

Micro Kid with mega thoughts
He is real, he is here, he is fashionable
Micro Kid speaks digitalk
If you hear what he says it's acceptable

Knowledge fuels the mind of the few
In a way that no one's found
Brave new answers screaming the truth
And the Techno wins the crown

Micro Kid he's filled with mega thoughts
He is real, he is here, he is fashionable
Micro Kid he speaks with digitalk
If you hear what he says it's acceptable

Micro Kid he's filled with mega thoughts
He is real, he is here, he is fashionable
Micro Kid he speaks with digitalk
