Sold in silence
I never thought I could ever fall so deep
Now I need to know how you feel
And with a kiss I steal the silence from your lips

Hearts colliding
Making waves that will echo through the years
Never thought I would find a love so real
And I know this I want the life that love can give Now I know what it means

A love so rare in years of wasted promises
A love to care only love can make some sense of it
A love affair and though it's only just begun
A love to share when two hearts collide and beat as one
Now I know you care

And I'll provide you with a dream that will never disappear
With the words that I know you want to hear
Without end I've found a love I will defend
Now you know what I mean
Now you know what I mean

A love so rare in years of wasted promises
A love to care only love can make some sense of it
A love affair and though it's only just begun
A love to share when two hearts collide and beat as one
Now I know you care

A love so rare in years of wasted promises
A love to care only love can make some sense of it
A love affair and though it's only just begun
A love to share when two hearts collide and beat as one

A love so rare
A love to care
A love affair when two hearts collide and beat as one
A love so rare
A love to care
A love affair
