Tell me why are you leaving
When there's no place to go
What's this secret you'r keeping
You don't want me to know
Only ..... defending
'cos the truth stands by itself
It's time for honesty
I can see - there's someone else

When the dawn breaks tomorrow
Will your whole life been changed
Are you sure all the sorrow
Won't just flood back again
Some strange dream you've been chasing
It's just another rainbow's end
You won't find it there - not anywhere
So why pretend

Aahhhaaaahhhaahhaahhaahaahhaahhahha (roughly)

Tell me why are you leaving
For the things that you know
If it's dreams you believe in
Just how far can you go
If you leave, what's the answer
Perhaps some other side-effect
Won't you change your mind
Take some time - and I'll be there
(I'll be there)
