

Levellers "Hard Fight"

Visit "Hard Fight" on MotoLyrics.com

Pushed from the start
Do it right and maybe you'll take a part
Call a spade a spade

Put on your blinkers maybe then you'll be made
To walk the streets
Head full of false facts you can't get back

But you wake up one day
You wake up one day
Can't see the world the same way
All the lights have changed

Your routine's down the drain
Things will never be the same
Some call it art
But it's hard to start

When you don't know the game
But it feels so good
To be understood
By yourself again

Now you've got to fight
You ain't got no wage so you ain't got no rights
Call a spade a spade
Put on your blinkers maybe then you'll be made
