You know when the sky is blue
And the wind cuts right through
The sun shines on you alone
Every step will take you nearer, nearer home

And I love the river
That carries us on in one direction
Bringing me nearer, nearer home

But you haven' made it yet
No, you still haven't made it yet

The sky turns grey and the river runs high
Running faster passes you by
Ghosts of life are following you
With a bit of luck we can make it through

I thought I heard you sigh
When you thought that you were there
World turns for you alone
Every step takes you nearer, nearer home

But you haven' made it yet
No, you still haven't made it yet

The sky turns grey and the river runs high
Running faster passes you by
Ghosts of life are following you
With a bit of luck we can make it through

But you haven' made it yet
No, you still haven't made it yet
No, you haven' made it yet
No, you still haven't made it yet
