I'm in pain, baby
A little hung over maybe
Have you seen my head?
Has anybody seen my head?
Just when did I become invisible?
Can you tell me when I became invisible?

I'm so sorry, officer
I'm so sorry, officer
Have you seen my legs?
Has anybody seen my legs?
Just when did I become invisible?
Can you tell me when I became invisible?

(Walk through walls even walk through lives)
Walk through walls, even through lives
(Walk through walls even walk through lives)
Nobody notices my disguise
(Walk through walls even walk through lives)
So tell me when did I become invisible

I was here yesterday
I'm sure I was here yesterday
Do you remember my face?
Please remember my face
Just when did I become invisible?
Tell me when did I become invisible?

(Walk through walls even walk through lives)
I can walk through walls, even through lives
(Walk through walls even walk through lives)
Nobody notices my disguise
(Walk through walls even walk through lives)

Tell me [Incomprehensible] walk through walls and even through lives
(Walk through walls even walk through lives)
I can walk through walls, even through lives
(Walk through walls even walk through lives)
But tell me when did I become
(Walk through walls even walk through lives)

Tell me when did I become
(Walk through walls even walk through lives)
Tell me when did I become invisible
When did I become divisible
Tell me when did I become visible
