"Make You Happy"

When you're staring at the walls
And your heart begins to sink
Seems that no-one ever calls
And you've nothing left to think

Well, I would love to make u happy
But I'm busy with my mind
'Cos I would love to make your world right
I need your help and you need mine

When you're queuing with the rest
Hurrying to wait in line
I'm the one that's behind you
I'm behind you all the time

I would love to make u happy
But I'm busy with my mind
'Cos I would love to make your world right
I need your help and you need mine

It's Monday again
Drives you insane
There's more to gain
When you touch the flame

And I have seen you from afar
Wondering if you have seen me
Seen you sitting in your car
Just staring at the sea

I've seen your head slumped at the bar
Wont you buy a drink for me
'Cos this old world ain't very large
I hope one day you'll talk to me

'Cos I would love to make u happy
But I'm busy with my mind
'Cos I would love to make your world right
I need your help and you need mine

'Cos I would love to make u happy

But I'm busy with my mind
'Cos I would love to make your world right
I need your help and you need mine

It's Monday again
