When our Mave and I was married tried to settle down
And all we need's half a million quid for to buy a two up and two down
We were on the council waiting list number six thousand and five We're due for a house in 2001 that's assuming we're both still alive.

Where the hell are we gonna live
where the hell are we gonna live?
Some miserable mansion up in the sky walking around in a block a mile high, Tellin' my friends that I'd much rather die
where the hell are we gonna live?

Well, it's all a bleedin' fiddle forgive me for bein' so rude I know we could save for the mortgage right now if the two of us stopped eating food
Where the hell do our kids play
where the hell do our kids play?
No ball game allowed, stay off of the grass
Keep out of the way, don't block up the path

Shove all your plans right up your

Where the hell are we gonna live...

They're building battery farms for humans where houses stood before Where there used to be just one family now they're tryin' to keep 24 There's no shops, playgrounds no boozers, in the architects' great plan
You may wanna live like a chicken my friend, but I wanna live like a man.

Where the hell are we gonna live
where the hell are we s'posed to live?...

Where the hell are we gonna live

where the hell are we s'posed to live?...
