Sailing trough the storming waters
We're drifting on the open sea
No-one can tell our destination
Or time left for you and me
You and me

Somewhere beyond the dark horizon
Is said to lie a land of dreams
Maybe we'll reach that shore tomorrow
Maybe it's not for us to see

[Refrain:]
Take your time
It's not now or never
We can't fly beyond the horizon
We spend our lives
Sailing on forever
We can't fly beyond horizon

Beyond the horizon... [3x]
Maybe our life is just a dream...

As we're dreaming of tomorrow
And the world to fill our dreams
Through tears of joy and sorrow
To see all there is to see

[Refrain]

Beyond the horizon... [3x]
We can't fly, oh no

You and me
Sailing on forever
To eternity
