Here we fucking go!

Drop it like it's hot - cold

Yeah!

I need to know if this weakened heart has strength to carry on

Another day around the ones who always brings me down.

I make beliefs around the thought that we could be so much more

We're glowing like the sparks in a fire.

Through the smoke you change your fucking act.

I still don't know what it means to you.

The time might heal the bruises in my soul,

But I won't forget your actions

We're sinking but I don't care if we make it.

We were always under the surface.

We let go of all the things we were certain would hold.

Lets drown here together.

In this darkest hour I need to find myself a light,

That will shine up the path that I'm heading for.

I have reached shore.

I will stand my ground until the day that I close my eyes
for the last fucking time

I reach up to the sky and believe if we are not in this together

I would rather give up on our dream.

Your wear my heart like a fucking joke.

I reach up to the sky and believe

That the sun sets along with us. (x2)

We're sinking and I don't care if we make it.

We're always under the surface.

We let go of all the things we were certain of would hold.
Let's drown here together.

I curse the day, you where fucking born!
