Realize that I've lost control
Impulses keep flashing through my head
I'm on the outside

Take up all my life inside
Why would I let them make up my mind
And be mislead?
Go ahead make up your mind
I have had enough of who they want
Leave me alone

This pain inside I can't understand
This hate in life that will not go away

Go ahead make up your mind
I have had enough of who they want
Leave me alone
Realize that I've lost control
Impulses keep flashing through my head
I'm on the outside

This pain inside I can't understand
This hate in life that will not go away
This pain inside I can not live with it
It feels like no one really understands

It's always killing me the problems I face daily
It's always things that I have always take in vain

I'm sick of you judging me
I'm sick of you judging me
I'm sick of you judging me

This pain inside I can't understand
This hate in life that will not go away
This pain inside I can not live with it
It feels like no one really understands

It's always killing me the problems I face daily
