Fireworks, fireflies
On the roof watching summer night skies
All the boys, all the girls
All the time making love with our eyes

Life just went on for us, day after day
We could fly, oh!
Cocky, so confident
There was no way
We could die

Over, over and over again
Life is a circle
But it's over and over again
Over, over, hey

Little words, little games
The dramas we played, left behind
Little friends, little names
Puppy lovers we had, love was blind

Life just went on for us day after day
Screaming by, oh!
Fast as a shooting star
Cruising the midnight sky

Over, over and over again
Life is a circle
But it's over and over again
Over, over, hey

It just goes on forever
It just goes on forever

Over, over and over again
Life is a circle
But it's over and over again
(Aah it just goes on an' on)

Over over and over again
(Over and over again)
Life is a circle

But it's over and over again
(Day after day)
Over, over and over again
