I thought that you thought that we thought we were bound to each other But it's not that way, we don't care about one another Thunder and lightning showed me all the threats you weren't saying Thunder and lightning, gonna throw it all away

Thunder and lightning and you touched my life without warning
Oh, how I loved you, you loved me, now what are we thinking?
Thunder and lightning will burn you just as sure as I'm singing Thunder and lightning, didn't know our love would end
this way

You got your way, and we're to blame, but that's okay
Another time, another place, it's one more game After all is said and done we'll overcome
The psychological setback of a time on the run

It hurt to see you play games that were so one sided
I dealt the cards but the aces were in your back pocket Thunder and lightning won't let you alone 'till I'm paying Thunder and lightning, didn't know our love could end
this way
