I am unsure about a couple things
I need to know the truth
Would you answer honestly?
I need to know how you're
The problem The solution, and the truth

Is love for real?
If it is, then why do we mess up?
More often than we get it right
How does everybody fight the same old wars

Let's talk dissent
I'm not talking about the state of government
This is personal
So what's it gonna to take to relieve myself
Of everybody else's point of view?

Find the truth
