"In Yours Eyes"

Visit "In Yours Eyes" on MotoLyrics.com

Your heart on the ice

Frozen and mat

I feel your coldness in your eyes

Your soul on the clouds gives power to my trunk

I should stay with my destiny on bloody sky

My last dance in the fire

Flame in your eyes raising

My trunk will never fade burning with the fire of your fate in the depth of oceans

In your eyes

In your eyes and on my vein

That's your fire

Your soul's gonna live with my power

And when I close my eyes

Bells explode in the sky and it rains

And soil blooms you
