"So Where Is God?"

Visit "So Where Is God?" on MotoLyrics.com

I have stolen heaven and earth
Gone unaccused of any crime
Been framed in an ice sculpture of Jesus
Begging to be absolved
Thorns bleeding, causing my saviour to melt
Every time blasphemous words
Have split from my lips
Ending my sentence with a sentence
And a exclamation
Prayers cannot save me,
God has damned us all
Slap my face for taking his name in vain
Receiving him is so far gone
Kneeling now so where is god?
Hads exalted, holding cross
Praying now so where is god
Wash my out mouth
With holy water and soup
Trying to cleanse the thoughts
Impure on the inside
Torment rape the Virgin Mother

Burn from me this guilt enough
To fill the cup of Christ
Strap my confessions to the fence
For all to ridicule weakness
Make an example out of me
Receiving him is so far gone
Kneeling now so where is god?
Hads exalted, holding cross
Praying now so where is god
Wash my out mouth
With holy water and soup
Trying to cleanse the thoughts
Impure on the inside
