Melody's piano lies in the sun,
Gathering dust one by one,
He knows what she's saying it isn't so,
The boys don't listen they don't know.

Embrace this land in your hands,
Travel the world meet your man
Don't seek out the plans if they don't feel right.

100 days is long enough for me
Meet new people once only
Don't feel ashamed what's in your heart
Write tales of where your life starts

Embrace this land in your hands,
Travel the world meet your man
Don't seek out the plans if they don't feel right.
