Check it out.

Yo son, yo I remember one day, right...

we was walking in this motherfuckin store right

There was this old lady in there, she was behind the cash register

I think her husband, it was just her and her husband

He was way back in the store, right

Fixing some shit, I don't know what the fuck he was doing but me and Rack walked up in there, right

I'm looking at the leathers, and... 'n'...

they had some silk shit for sale, right

So then, after that, motherfuckin Rack

he grabbed a leather coat, fold it up, and he threw it up the back, right

As soon as he had did that, all you hear was the lady screaming...

"John they're stealing!"

[Rack Lo]

Camcorders, and computers on Crazy Eddie, one eighty six

My Lo white Polo arm is box cutters or ice picks

For the ? rush at a quarter to six

"John they're stealing!"

[Thirstin Howl]

In Macy's I got caught with something to cut wires loose

At Foot Locker I run out every time I try on shoes

Stealing meats from the supermarkets

My moms asking me why didn't I get a job yet

"John they're stealing!"

[Rack Lo]

Sometimes I find myself in dressing rooms

My favorite spot is Blooms...on Lex

Hit the floor in Mervyns for Gortex jackets

With reflectors
Accompanied by three hundred and sixty professional store wreckers

"John they're stealing!"

[Thirstin Howl]
Five finger discounts
I steal the mannequin's window displays in Chinese stand wig mounts
Fruit stands...raspberries
Responsible for 75 percent, of all stolen car batteries
And hubcaps
Police once had a perfect sketch of me but they forgot my mustache

"John they're stealing!"

[Rack Lo]
My baggage, just got knocked for 50 percent of stolen merchandise
The real is, I swear more
The other 50 percent is at the ? Hall
Sold to Donald Trump, for personal checks
And Polo USA turtle necks
In a bodega we steal bottles of Bex
And Heineken.....99 cent special bag of pretzels

"John they're stealing!"

[Thirstin Howl]
At Woolworth, walking in, with risk
I was homeless, stealing foot powder and deoderant stinks
Got sticky fingers, but it's all in the wrist
30 seconds to reach the exit
Dirty circus
Hunger, a repeated purpose

"John they're stealing!"

[Rack Lo]
Security, put a APB...out on a thief
Associated to double L
For taking a search in credit cards in ?
Medical Lab
Hijack a taxi cab like a mad A-rab
Off to Medina
I got a job for my ? spot cleaners ? like hot ?

"John they're stealing!"

[Thirstin Howl]

A Lo Life, like Frankie Bon Claiborne Couldn't find a reason for anything to be paid for Klepto, like Ralph, and Rudy
Imagine what I do to a store without security

"John they're stealing!"

[Rack Lo]

Dressed with a big ? Cardigan
Marching, in front of Madison Square Garden Hitting pockets, among, ??
On millas I'm labeled high risk Wrecked with ?
And disappear like a gypsy

"John they're stealing!"
