

Lewis Crystal

"The Mother & The Bride"

Visit "The Mother & The Bride" on MotoLyrics.com

As a mother awaits the birth of a newborn child
So shall I await the coming of my King
And as emotions rise and tear drops fall for the joy to come
So I long to be forever with the One

He will hold me up for all the world to see
A splendid crown for the King of Kings
Never again will I be left alone
He calls me His bride
And He'll come to take me home

As a bride waits to see the face of the one she's waited for
So I long to see the one my sins He bore
And as she stands there before him ready to give herself away
So my Jesus gave His all for me, I'll thank Him on that day
When He will...

He will hold me up for all the world to see
A splendid crown for the King of Kings
Never again will I be left alone
He calls me His bride
And He'll come to take me home
BE READY!!

Visit Lewis Crystal page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.