"Sentenced To Death"

Visit "Sentenced To Death" on MotoLyrics.com

Birth, pain, death
The early years of our lives
Are a long way on through the nights
Seem into darkness
Once you can stand up on your feet
It's only pain you're bound to meet
You've gotta fight to be somebody
You've gotta kill to be somebody
Whatever you do, death awaits
The reaper knows you, death awaits
Birth, pain, death
Sentenced to death
Years after years, become harder
Years after years, become stronger
Take your seat on the highest row
You can rule and lay down your own law
But all you build is just nothing
Life is as fast as a lightning
Everyone is sentenced, death awaits
In the sands of time, death awaits.
