See my avenging hand's darkening your sky
It's time for you to come and defy.
I'm your guide, I'm your master, I'm your brain,
The only one who can soothe your pain.

Now come and fight with strength and honour
Now I'm you, your metal messiah.

Let extreme violence overcome you
Despise those minds too false to see through.
Intolerance, arrogance and distaste,
Vengeance and blind hate, this is your fate.

So come and fight with strength and honour
Follow me, your metal messiah.

So lost in the maze of your wicked thoughts
Only my light can release your soul
Let me show you what is domination
Let me be your metal messiah.
