I saw her on a Friday outside some run down saloon She was crying over someone that she felt left much too soon
I said hey girl don't you cry tonite lemme take you out on this town.
She looked at me and smiled as one last tear splashed off the ground With half a wink she asked me what are you some kinda creep
I told her no i guess i just feel your vibe is kinda deep the moon hung over soho and i counted 16 stars i pointed at the brightest one and said now that one's our's

Chorus:

she's a dandelion up on a hill above the sea she's not exactly everything i thought that she might be she's dandelion she looks like everything i need i thought she was a flower but i found out she's a weed and i hold on hold on hold on hold on hold on hold on she just might be poison but i took her to my rooftop i said are you afraid of hieghts she said no i am not i said hey girl don't you lie to me tell me everything you feel we danced around in circles she said i think we found something real

she's a dandelion up on a cliff above the sea she's not exactly everything i thought that she might be
and i hold on hold on hold on down in union square i saw her walking all alone i walked a little slower just so i'd remain unknown she met someone on 17th and she knew him all too well my little peice of heaven has a secret she won't tell with half a smile she took his hand and then they walked away

i realized i wouldn't see my girl after today i fell inlove w/ the dandelion and she's all i ever had at first she looks so sweet but in the end she tatse so bad

she's a dandelion up on a cliff above the sea
she's not exactly everything i thought that she might be
and i hold on hold on hold on and i take it slow
hold on hold on hold on
she's a dandelion up on a cliff above the sea she's not exactly everything i thought that she would be
