Silent bells will ring
A signal for us to fight
Deep inside we sing
Something different all the time
Why do we still hurt each other?
When all is pain that drowns you down and nothing more

No one doubts our fights
We protect our families
In the darkest nights
We destroy our enemies
Is this the way out to survive?
When all it leaves us is nothing but knives not lives

(All within the rising force)
Day and night we pray for peace to come
When not at war, that is what we long for
Let us sing and dance to our motherland
With smiles and laughter

Out loud bells will ring
Once again for us to hear
Can't help our hearts sing
Something different yet not fear
This is the way out to survive
No matter how deep the pain or the lives it costs

We will keep believing that one day this will end
Each step we take, will take us to the next
We'll keep fighting 'til our men say
Then we will find our peace

Yes we will, keep believing in tomorrow
Yes we will, fight until there is tomorrow
The Holy Force will never die

Day and night we pray for peace to come
When not at war, that is what we long for
Let us sing and dance to our motherland
With smiles and laughter
