English translation

Flowing through the wide sky, on the other side of those clouds
This road continues

As I sway with you on the busWoo... I think of the summers when I was young In this blue seasonWe're embracing our certain feelings now
We're always walking a road without promises
But I feel like the weather will be fine again tomorrowAh, with you, I'll go to meet the summer Leaving the same footprints on the white sand
Ah, the flock of butterflies Flying through the blue sky...
You, too, should brand their image on your heartFlowing slowly on the other side of the rainbow
This road continues
With the smell of the rain that passed throughWoo.
.. this dry wind blows through my t-shirt Looking at the blue capeBefore we knew it, we started growing up
And became unable to see what we'd lost
But I believe that we'll definitely find them again
As long as we're togetherAh, let's go find that expanse of sky
I'll laugh with you on the shining wind's path Ah, however many years pass
The time we spent together will always be precious to meWe're embracing our certain feelings now We're always walking a road without promises
But I feel like the weather will be fine again tomorrow Yes, and from now onAh, with you, I'll go to meet the summer
Leaving the same footprints on the white sand
Flying through the summer sky...
You, too, should brand their image on your heart
